Once the wall's HP is down there is an opening in the wall.
Damage to the wall for this method can be done by spells as well.
When this king of attack happens the attacker does not take damage.
Damage is only done to the attacker when the attacker physically touches it.

This is hazy but visible must be set to outline a 3x3 area.

the border cannot go through a current physical activity of living creatures.

WHAT THIS SKILL DOES DO:

WHAT THIS SKILL DOES NOT DO:

- Does NOT

All mind-to-mind communication actually travels through the spirit world.
Each communication travels from the original Nae'Em to the destination Nae'Em as a blue-ish wisp of power. The wisp is almost transparent as viewed by those that can see into the spirit world.

Any specific communication is delivered in a arc (as if thrown) by these wisps.
When required to follow a long path which does not allow an arc to be used the wisp will quickly float along until it can arc up and over to the destination.

The wisps are able to travel through most materials.
The wisps are NOT able to travel through stone that is more than 4 squares thick or through Adamantium. When the wisp is NOT able to complete it's full journey it ceases to exist.

However, the wisps are able to travel AROUND these.
The wisps will always work to find a way around any obstacles to get to the destination.

Wisps do NOT have any ability to reveal their communcation package to any but their destination.

The Venerator is able to view and track the movement of the wisps within the limits of their abiltity to see (i.e. with normal vision or other vision, but within normal range).
